

2001 911 C4 Aerokit Coupe

$45,900

Arctic silver and black interior in super condition. Not too surprising given the odo says 10,200 miles. And it's a C4! The Aerokit completely transforms the appearance of a narrow body Carrera. And the sport exhaust transforms the driving experience. A very well kept 911 with beaucoup options including sport exhaust, PSM traction control, Power/heated/memory (L) seats in draped leather front and rear, stainless steel entries and painted console, 18" Sport Design wheels, Xenon headlights and washers, and the onboard computer. An Aerokit C4 coupe in this condition with this mileage is about as rare as they come.
